"In the beginning . . . God said, Let there be light." — Genesis 1:1a, 3a.

God has always desired the world to be a place of light and brightness. John says, "God is light and in him is no darkness at all." Not only physical light, but mental and spiritual light come from God.

That darkness should envelop man was not God's plan, but through Satan's trickery it did. However, God made a remedy for that. He sent His Son to be the True Light and Christ left us with the admonition, "Ye are the light of the world."

We, the students of B.T.S., are endeavoring to be true representatives of the glorious gospel of Christ, to let our light shine unto the uttermost part of the world. We are striving to make our motto not "Send the Light" but "Take the Light."

MY HIGH RESOLVE

I dedicate my life to redeeming deserts into rose gardens. I shall take time to feel the tragedy of emptiness in the lives of people I meet. I shall seek by all means to bring showers of refreshment to fall upon sons of truth and kindness. I shall seek to turn deserts into rose gardens.

The unawakened are everywhere. They are asleep to their possibilities. Equipped for lives of service and a great destiny, they wonder aimlessly on.

Hedged in by the stone wall of their own frailties and faults, they see not the world of opportunity that reaches beyond the stors.

It shall be my high resolve to awaken and inspire.

It shall be my aim to lift them up to where they shall see the great world of beauty, love and inspiration.

Desert minds and barren hearts shall be made to rejoice and blossom as the rose. I shall bide my time; though it may take years of effort and sacrifice, I am resolved to see every desert within my reach and influence become woving fields of grain, gardens of flowers, and landscapes of rich vintoge.

THE SENIORS LEAVE A WORD

The world is what you make it; then make it bright and true,
And when you say it's gloom, it isn't the world—it's you!—Doris Wigley.

Only one life, 'twill soon be past; only what's done for Christ will last.—Armeline Cousineau.

The secret of success is work—what a deep secret.—Lourenna Harrawood.

Friendship is the highest degree of perfection in society.—Martin Baldree.

Dare to be true; nothing can need a lie.—Geraldine Cole.

Our prayer and God's mercy are like two buckets in a well; while one ascends, the other descends.—Bessie Bolan.

Every life that would be strong must have its Holy of Holies into which only God can enter.
—Ruth Culberson.

Life can be very humorous at times and sometimes it is no joke.—Nadyne Clouse.

Words fitly spoken are like apples of gold in pictures of silver.—Mildred Foster.

Be useful where thou livest.—Edna Connatser.

The surest way to get rid of an enemy is to make a friend of him.—Chestena Hayes.

Any fish wouldn't get caught if it would keep its mouth shut.—Mary Oller.

My fondest dreams have flown beyond the blue horizon.—Willene Day.

He that expects nothing is seldom disappointed.—Marie Strevel.

Soul winning, not soul wrecking, is the need of today.—John Duckett.

That I may see each man with his own eyes, and give acceptance to the ones who come my way.
—Lucille Settle.

Our success in life will be just about what we want to make it.—Robert Humbertson.

He serveth best who loveth best all things both great and small.—Ida M. McKay.

Not afraid of work but not in sympathy with it.—Jerry Boatman.

Purpose is what gives life a meaning.—Reba Crawford.

Always do what you want to do—always want to do right.—Joe Woodward.

I pray the prayer of Plato old, "Oh, make me beautiful within,

"Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth," Ecclesiastes 12:1a.—William Brantley.

"There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it," 1 Corinthians 10:13.—Louis Brannen.

If I can't do great things, I can do small things in a great way.—Mauldin Ray.

Each tomorrow will be a dull mirror to reflect my yesterdays.—James Cooper.

That I may exercise to His greater glory every talent and power given me of God.—Rufus H. Griffin.

Hope is like the sun which, as we journey toward it, casts the shadow of our burden behind us.—Paul Swendsen.

I expect to pass through this life but once. If there is any kindness I can show or any good I can do any fellow being, let me do it now; for I shall not pass this way again.—Grady Alford.

The interest one shows toward a task may largely determine the desired result's coming to pass.—Harrell Kirkland.

Live the truth; the truth will never die.—Clifford Bridges.

You can do as much as you think you can but you'll never accomplish more.—Virginia Jo Long.

Jesus in life; Jesus in death; Jesus forever.—Nolan Akers.

Stone walls do not a prison make, nor iron bars a cage.—W. J. Harris.

Live as if Christ were crucified yesterday, arose today, and coming tomorrow. — Georgia McCorkle.

It is a sin to do less than your best.—Wanda Nell Anderson.

Others may do a greater work, but you have your part to do,
And no one in all God's heritage can do it as well as you.—Mary Larson.

Make the most of today; tomorrow will take care of itself.—Madalyn Hurst.

"Words fitly spoken are as apples of gold in pictures of silver."—Maxine Elliott.

He that expects great things from God shall not be disappointed.—Dorothy Beckman.

More things are wrought by prayer than this world dreams of.—Clara Miller.

Success awaits those who refuse to be discouraged.—Tiny Newton.

Live and learn; die and forget.—Tommie Burroughs.

The Lord is thy rock and thy shield; a very present help in time of need.—Norma Youngs.

Stand still and see the salvation of the Lord.—C. L. Hall.

Prayer is the secret of success.—Herbert Walker.

What you are speaks so loudly that I cannot hear what you say.—Paul Crone.

There are times when nothing a man can say is nearly so powerful as saying nothing.—Jarvis Hill.
